ABOUT PHILADELPHIA'S MAGIC GARDENS

Philadelphia's Magic Gardens (PMG) is a nonprofit visionary art environment and community arts center located in Isaiah Zagar's largest public artwork.

Spanning half a block on Philadelphia's famous South Street, the museum includes an immersive outdoor art installation and indoor galleries. Zagar created the space using nontraditional materials such as folk art statues, found objects, bicycle wheels, colorful glass bottles, hand-made tiles, and thousands of glittering mirrors. The site is enveloped in visual anecdotes and personal narratives that refer to Zagar's life, family, and community, as well as references from the wider world such as influential art history figures and other visionary artists and environments.

PMG is a unique Philadelphia destination that inspires creativity and community engagement by providing educational opportunities and diverse public programming to thousands of visitors each year. For more information, visit www.phillymagicgardens.org
